

Yugoslavian/Zastava M92:

Some of the M92 models use a round-profile gas tube that require a 'star guide' feature behind the piston head to ensure it is guided back into the gas block. We have included a part that replicates the guide function, AGP-C-YU. The piston ships with the dummy collar installed as this is the most common configuration meant for the 'fluted' gas tube.